IC 36-7.6-2-3

Units that may establish a development authority; contiguity requirements

Sec. 3. (a) Subject to the provisions of this article, regional development authorities may be established under subsection (b), (c), or (d).

(b) A development authority may be established by two (2) or more counties that are located in the same economic growth region.

(c) A development authority may be established by:

- (1) two (2) or more counties that are located in the same economic growth region; and
- (2) one (1) or more counties that:
 - (A) are not located in the same economic growth region as the counties described in subdivision (1); and
 - (B) are adjacent to the economic growth region containing the counties described in subdivision (1).

(d) A development authority may be established by:

- (1) one (1) or more counties; and
- (2) one (1) or more second class cities that:
 - (A) are not located in the county or counties described in subdivision (1); and

(B) are located in the same economic growth region as the county or counties described in subdivision (1).

(e) A county or second class city may participate in the establishment of a development authority under this section and become a member of the development authority only if the fiscal body of the county or second class city adopts an ordinance authorizing the county or second class city to participate in the establishment of the development authority.

(f) A county may be a member of a development authority only if the county is contiguous to at least one (1) other county that is a member of the development authority. A second class city may be a member of a development authority only if the county in which the second class city is located is contiguous to at least one (1) other county that is a member of the development authority.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision, if a county becomes a member of a development authority, each municipality in the county also becomes a member of the development authority.

(h) Not more than two (2) development authorities may be established in a particular economic growth region. For purposes of this subsection, a development authority is considered to be established in a particular economic growth region if a county or municipality located in the economic growth region is a member of a development authority.

(i) A county or municipality may be a member of only one (1) development authority.

(j) A county or municipality that is a member of the northwest Indiana regional development authority under IC 36-7.5 may not be a member of a development authority under this article.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-4

Joining an existing development authority

Sec. 4. (a) A county or second class city that:

- (1) is not a member of a development authority; and
- (2) was eligible to participate in the establishment of a particular development authority established under this article;

may join that development authority under this section.

(b) A county or second class city described in subsection (a) may join a development authority under this section only if:

- (1) the fiscal body of the county or second class city adopts an ordinance authorizing the county or second class city to become a member of the development authority; and
- (2) after the fiscal body adopts an ordinance under subdivision (1), the development board of the development authority adopts a resolution authorizing the county or second class city to become a member of the development authority.

(c) A county or second class city becomes a member of a development authority on January 1 of the year following the year in which the development board adopts a resolution under subsection

(b)(2) authorizing the county or second class city to become a member of the development authority.

(d) The executive of a county or second class city that becomes a member of a development authority under this section is entitled to appoint a member to the development board under section 7 of this chapter.

(e) A county or second class city may not join a development authority under this section if joining the development authority would violate the requirement in section 3(h) of this chapter that not more than two (2) development authorities may be established in a particular economic growth region.

(f) If a county joins a development authority under this section, each municipality in the county also becomes a member of the development authority.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7. Amended by P.L.3-2008, SEC.265.

IC 36-7.6-2-5

Minimum length of participation; withdrawal

Sec. 5. (a) This section applies to the following:

(1) A county that participates in the establishment of a development authority under section 3 of this chapter or that joins a development authority under section 4 of this chapter.

(2) A second class city that participates in the establishment of a development authority under section 3(d) of this chapter or that joins a development authority under section 4 of this chapter.

(b) A county or second class city described in subsection (a) shall be a member of the development authority for five (5) years after the date the county or second class city becomes a member of the development authority.

(c) At least twelve (12) months and not more than eighteen (18) months before the end of a five (5) year period under subsection (b), the fiscal body of the county or second class city described in subsection (a) must adopt a resolution that:

(1) commits the county or second class city to an additional five (5) years as a member of the development authority, beginning at the end of the current five (5) year period; or

(2) withdraws the county or second class city from membership in the development authority not earlier than the end of the current five (5) year period.

(d) The fiscal body of a county or second class city described in subsection (a) must adopt a resolution under subsection (c) during each five (5) year period in which the county or second class city is a member of the development authority.

(e) A county or second class city described in subsection (a) may withdraw from a development authority as provided in this section without the approval of the development board.

(f) If at the end of a five (5) year period a county described in subsection (a) does not withdraw from the development authority under this section and remains a member of the development authority, the municipalities in the county may not withdraw from the development authority and remain members of the development authority.

(g) If at the end of a five (5) year period a county described in subsection (a) withdraws from the development authority under this section, the municipalities in the county are also withdrawn from the development authority on the effective date of the county's withdrawal.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-6

Liability for unpaid transfers after withdrawal

Sec. 6. A county or municipality that withdraws from a development authority under section 5 of this chapter is liable to the development authority for any unpaid transfers under IC 36-7.6-4-2 that become due before the withdrawal of the county or municipality from the development authority is effective.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-7

Development board; members

Sec. 7. (a) A development authority is governed by a development board appointed under this section.

(b) A development board is composed of the following members:

(1) One (1) member appointed by the executive of each county that is a member of the development authority.

(2) One (1) member appointed by the executive of each second class city that is a member of the development authority.

(3) If the development authority receives or will receive an appropriation, a grant, or a distribution of money from the state, one (1) or more members appointed by the governor under section 8 of this chapter, if approved by the development board.

(c) A member appointed to the development board must have knowledge of and at least five (5) years professional work experience in at least one (1) of the following:

(1) Rail transportation or air transportation.

(2) Regional economic development.

(3) Business or finance.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-8

Addition of member appointed by the governor

Sec. 8. (a) If a development authority receives or will receive an appropriation, a grant, or a distribution of money from the state, the development board may adopt a resolution to add to the development board one (1) or more members appointed by the governor.

(b) If a development board adopts a resolution under this section, the governor shall appoint to the development board the number of members specified in the resolution.

(c) A member appointed by the governor under this section must meet the knowledge and professional work experience requirements of section 7(c) of this chapter.

(d) If the governor appoints a member to a development board under this section, the governor retains the authority to appoint a member to the development board regardless of whether the state continues to appropriate, grant, or distribute money to the development authority.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-9

Terms; reappointment; oath; per diem

Sec. 9. (a) A member appointed to a development board serves a four (4) year term. However, a member serves at the pleasure of the appointing authority. A member may be reappointed to subsequent terms.

(b) If a vacancy occurs on a development board, the appointing authority that made the initial appointment shall fill the vacancy by appointing a new member for the remainder of the vacated term.

(c) Each member appointed to a development board, before entering upon the duties of office, must take and subscribe an oath of office under IC 5-4-1, which shall be endorsed upon the certificate of appointment and filed with the records of the development board.

(d) A member appointed to a development board is not entitled to receive any compensation for performance of the member's duties. However, a member is entitled to a per diem from the development authority for the member's participation in development board meetings. The amount of the per diem is equal to the amount of the per diem provided under IC 4-10-11-2.1(b).

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-10

Officers

Sec. 10. (a) In January of each year, a development board shall hold an organizational meeting at which the development board shall elect the following officers from the members of the development board:

- (1) A chair.
- (2) A vice chair.
- (3) A secretary-treasurer.

(b) The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the appointed members of a development board is necessary to elect an officer under subsection (a).

(c) An officer elected under subsection (a) serves from the date of the officer's election until the officer's successor is elected and qualified.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-11

Quarterly meetings; calling meetings; quorum; authorization of action

Sec. 11. (a) A development board shall meet at least quarterly.

(b) The chair of a development board or any two (2) members of a development board may call a special meeting of the development board.

(c) A majority of the appointed members of a development board constitutes a quorum.

(d) The affirmative votes of at least a majority of the appointed members of a development board are necessary to authorize any action of the development authority.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-12Bylaws and rules

Sec. 12. A development board may adopt the bylaws and rules that the development board considers necessary for the proper conduct of the development board's duties and the safeguarding of the development authority's funds and property.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-13Common construction wage, public purchasing, and public works project laws apply

Sec. 13. (a) A development authority shall comply with IC 5-16-7 (common construction wage), IC 5-22 (public purchasing), IC 36-1-12 (public work projects), and any applicable federal bidding statutes and regulations. An eligible political subdivision that receives a loan, a grant, or other financial assistance from a development authority or enters into a lease with a development authority must comply with applicable federal, state, and local public purchasing and bidding laws and regulations. However, a purchasing agency (as defined in IC 5-22-2-25) of an eligible political subdivision may:

(1) assign or sell a lease for property to a development authority; or

(2) enter into a lease for property with a development authority; at any price and under any other terms and conditions as may be determined by the eligible political subdivision and the development authority. However, before making an assignment or a sale of a lease or entering into a lease under this section that would otherwise be subject to IC 5-22, the eligible political subdivision or its purchasing agent must obtain or cause to be obtained a purchase price for the property to be subject to the lease from the lowest responsible and responsive bidder in accordance with the requirements for the purchase of supplies under IC 5-22.

(b) In addition to the provisions of subsection (a), with respect to projects undertaken by a development authority, the development authority shall set a goal for participation by minority business enterprises and women's business enterprises. The goals must be consistent with:

- (1) the participation goals established by the counties and municipalities that are members of the development authority; and
- (2) the goals of delivering the project on time and within the budgeted amount and, insofar as possible, using Indiana businesses for employees, goods, and services.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-14

Annual financial audit

Sec. 14. (a) The office of management and budget shall contract with a certified public accountant for an annual financial audit of each development authority. The certified public accountant may not have a significant financial interest, as determined by the office of management and budget, in a project, facility, or service funded by or leased by or to any development authority.

(b) The certified public accountant shall present an audit report not later than four (4) months after the end of each calendar year and shall make recommendations to improve the efficiency of development authority operations. The certified public accountant shall also perform a study and evaluation of internal accounting controls and shall express an opinion on the controls that were in effect during the audit period.

(c) A development authority shall pay the cost of the annual financial audit under subsection (a). In addition, the state board of accounts may at any time conduct an audit of any phase of the operations of a development authority. A development authority shall pay the cost of any audit by the state board of accounts.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-2-15

Local advisory committees

Sec. 15. Each county or municipality that is member of a development authority may appoint a local advisory committee to advise the county or municipality on issues related to the development authority.

Duties

Sec. 1. A development authority shall do the following:

- (1) Assist in the coordination of local efforts concerning projects that are of regional importance.
- (2) Assist a county, a municipality, a commuter transportation district, an airport authority, and a regional transportation authority in coordinating regional transportation and economic development efforts.
- (3) Fund projects that are of regional importance, as provided in this article.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-3-2

Powers

Sec. 2. (a) A development authority may do any of the following:

- (1) Finance, improve, construct, reconstruct, renovate, purchase, lease, acquire, and equip land and projects that are of regional importance.
- (2) Lease land or a project to an eligible political subdivision.
- (3) Finance and construct additional improvements to projects or other capital improvements owned by the development authority and lease them to or for the benefit of an eligible political subdivision.
- (4) Construct or reconstruct highways, roads, and bridges.
- (5) Acquire land or all or a part of one (1) or more projects from an eligible political subdivision by purchase or lease and lease the land or projects back to the eligible political subdivision, with any additional improvements that may be made to the land or projects.
- (6) Acquire all or a part of one (1) or more projects from an eligible political subdivision by purchase or lease to fund or refund indebtedness incurred on account of the projects to enable the eligible political subdivision to make a savings in debt service obligations or lease rental obligations or to obtain relief from covenants that the eligible political subdivision considers to be unduly burdensome.
- (7) Make loans, loan guarantees, and grants or provide other financial assistance to or on behalf of the following:
 - (A) A commuter transportation district.
 - (B) An airport authority.
 - (C) A regional transportation authority. A loan, a loan guarantee, a grant, or other financial assistance under this clause may be used by a regional transportation authority for acquiring, improving, operating, maintaining, financing, and supporting the following:
 - (i) Bus services (including fixed route services and flexible or demand-responsive services) that are a component of a public transportation system.

(ii) Bus terminals, stations, or facilities or other regional bus authority projects.

(D) A county.

(E) A municipality.

(8) Provide funding to assist a railroad that is providing commuter transportation services in a county containing territory included in the development authority.

(9) Provide funding to assist an airport authority located in a county containing territory included in the development authority in the construction, reconstruction, renovation, purchase, lease, acquisition, and equipping of an airport facility or airport project.

(10) Provide funding for intermodal transportation projects and facilities.

(11) Provide funding for regional trails and greenways.

(12) Provide funding for economic development projects.

(13) Hold, use, lease, rent, purchase, acquire, and dispose of by purchase, exchange, gift, bequest, grant, condemnation, lease, or sublease, on the terms and conditions determined by the development authority, any real or personal property.

(14) After giving notice, enter upon any lots or lands for the purpose of surveying or examining them to determine the location of a project.

(15) Make or enter into all contracts and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of the development authority's duties and the execution of the development authority's powers under this article.

(16) Sue, be sued, plead, and be impleaded.

(17) Design, order, contract for, construct, reconstruct, and renovate a project or improvements to a project.

(18) Appoint an executive director and employ appraisers, real estate experts, engineers, architects, surveyors, attorneys, accountants, auditors, clerks, construction managers, and any consultants or employees that are necessary or desired by the development authority in exercising its powers or carrying out its duties under this article.

(19) Accept loans, grants, and other forms of financial assistance from the federal government, the state government, a political subdivision, or any other public or private source.

(20) Use the development authority's funds to match federal grants or make loans, loan guarantees, or grants to carry out the development authority's powers and duties under this article.

(21) Except as prohibited by law, take any action necessary to carry out this article.

(b) Projects funded by a development authority must be of regional importance.

(c) If a development authority is unable to agree with the owners, lessees, or occupants of any real property selected for the purposes of this article, the development authority may proceed under IC 32-24-1 to procure the condemnation of the property. The development authority may not institute a proceeding until it has adopted a resolution that:

- (1) describes the real property sought to be acquired and the purpose for which the real property is to be used;
- (2) declares that the public interest and necessity require the acquisition by the development authority of the property involved; and
- (3) sets out any other facts that the development authority considers necessary or pertinent.

The resolution is conclusive evidence of the public necessity of the proposed acquisition.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-3-3

Agreements for joint actions

Sec. 3. A development authority may enter into an agreement with another development authority or any other entity to:

- (1) jointly equip, own, lease, and finance projects and facilities; or
- (2) otherwise carry out the purposes of the development authority;

in any location.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-3-4

Reports

Sec. 4. A development authority shall before April 1 of each year issue a report to the legislative council, the budget committee, and the governor concerning the operations and activities of the development authority during the preceding calendar year. The report to the legislative council must be in an electronic format under IC 5-14-6.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-3-5

Development plan

Sec. 5. (a) A development authority shall prepare a comprehensive strategic development plan that includes detailed information concerning the following:

- (1) The proposed projects to be undertaken or financed by the development authority.
- (2) The following information for each project included under subdivision (1):
 - (A) Timeline and budget.
 - (B) The return on investment.
 - (C) The projected or expected need for an ongoing subsidy.
 - (D) Any projected or expected federal matching funds.

(b) The development authority shall, not later than January 1 of the second year following the year in which the development authority is established, submit the comprehensive strategic development plan for review by the budget committee and approval by the director of the office of management and budget.

IC 36-7.6-4

Chapter 4. Financing; Issuance of Bonds; Leases

IC 36-7.6-4-1

Development authority fund; accounts; debt service

Sec. 1. (a) A development board shall establish and administer a development authority fund.

(b) A development authority fund consists of the following:

- (1) Amounts transferred under section 2 of this chapter by each county and municipality that is a member of the development authority.
- (2) Appropriations, grants, or other distributions made to the fund by the state.
- (3) Money received from the federal government.
- (4) Gifts, contributions, donations, and private grants made to the fund.

(c) On the date a development authority issues bonds for any purpose under this article, which are secured in whole or in part by the development authority fund, the development board shall establish and administer two (2) accounts within the development authority fund. The accounts must be the general account and the lease rental account. After the accounts are established, all money transferred to the development authority fund under subsection (b)(1) shall be deposited in the lease rental account and used only for the payment of or to secure the payment of obligations of an eligible political subdivision under a lease entered into by the eligible political subdivision and the development authority under this chapter. However, any money deposited in the lease rental account and not used for the purposes of this subsection shall be returned by the secretary-treasurer of the development authority to the unit that contributed the money to the development authority.

(d) Notwithstanding subsection (c), if the amount of all money transferred to a development authority fund under subsection (b)(1) for deposit in the lease rental account in any one (1) calendar year is greater than an amount equal to the product of:

- (1) one and twenty-five hundredths (1.25); multiplied by
- (2) the total of the highest annual debt service on any bonds then outstanding to their final maturity date, which have been issued under this article and are not secured by a lease, plus the highest annual lease payments on any leases to their final maturity, which are then in effect under this article;

then all or a part of the excess may instead be deposited in the general account.

(e) All other money and revenue of a development authority may be deposited in the general account or the lease rental account at the discretion of the development board. Money on deposit in the lease rental account may be used only to make rental payments on leases entered into by the development authority under this article. Money on deposit in the general account may be used for any purpose authorized by this article.

(f) A development authority fund shall be administered by the development authority that established the development authority fund.

(g) Money in a development authority fund shall be used by the development authority to carry out this article and does not revert to any other fund.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-4-2

Revenue transfers to fund

Sec. 2. (a) Beginning January 1 of the year following the year in which a development authority is established, the fiscal officer of each county and each municipality that is a member of the development authority shall transfer the amount determined under subsection (b) to the development authority for deposit in the development authority fund.

(b) The amount of the transfer required each year by subsection (a) from each county and each municipality is equal to the following:

(1) Except as provided in subdivision (2), the amount that would be distributed to the county or the municipality as certified distributions of county economic development income tax revenue raised from a county economic development income tax rate of five-hundredths of one percent (0.05%) in the county.

(2) In the case of a county or municipality that becomes a member of a development authority after June 30, 2011, and before July 1, 2013, the amount that would be distributed to the county or municipality as certified distributions of county economic development income tax revenue raised from a county economic development income tax rate of twenty-five thousandths of one percent (0.025%) in the county.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (b), if the additional county economic development income tax under IC 6-3.5-7-28 is in effect in a county, the obligations of the county and each municipality in the county under this section are satisfied by the transfer to the development fund of all county economic development income tax revenue derived from the additional tax and deposited in the county regional development authority fund.

(d) The following apply to the transfers required by this section:

(1) The transfers shall be made without appropriation by the fiscal body of the county or the fiscal body of the municipality.

(2) Except as provided in subdivision (3), the fiscal officer of each county and each municipality that is a member of the development authority shall transfer twenty-five percent (25%) of the total transfers due for the year before the last business day of January, April, July, and October of each year.

(3) County economic development income tax revenue derived from the additional county economic development income tax under IC 6-3.5-7-28 must be transferred to the development fund not more than thirty (30) days after being deposited in the county regional development fund.

(4) This subdivision does not apply to a county in which the additional county economic development income tax under IC 6-3.5-7-28 has been imposed or to any municipality in the county. The transfers required by this section may be made from any local revenue (other than property tax revenue) of the county or municipality, including excise tax revenue, income tax revenue, local option tax revenue, riverboat tax revenue, distributions, incentive payments, or money deposited in the county's or municipality's local major moves construction fund under IC 8-14-16.

IC 36-7.6-4-3

Bond issues

Sec. 3. (a) Subject to subsection (h), a development authority may issue bonds for the purpose of obtaining money to pay the cost of:

- (1) acquiring real or personal property, including existing capital improvements;
- (2) acquiring, constructing, improving, reconstructing, or renovating one (1) or more projects; or
- (3) funding or refunding bonds issued under this chapter, IC 8-5-15, IC 8-22-3, IC 36-9-3, or prior law.

(b) The bonds are payable solely from:

- (1) the lease rentals from the lease of the projects for which the bonds were issued, insurance proceeds, and any other funds pledged or available; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided by law, revenue received by the development authority and amounts deposited in the development authority fund.

(c) The bonds must be authorized by a resolution of the development board of the development authority that issues the bonds.

(d) The terms and form of the bonds must either be set out in the resolution or in a form of trust indenture approved by the resolution.

(e) The bonds must mature within forty (40) years.

(f) A development board shall sell the bonds only to the Indiana bond bank established by IC 5-1.5-2-1 upon the terms determined by the development board and the Indiana bond bank.

(g) All money received from any bonds issued under this chapter shall be applied solely to the payment of the cost of acquiring, constructing, improving, reconstructing, or renovating one (1) or more projects, or the cost of refunding or refinancing outstanding bonds, for which the bonds are issued. The cost may include:

- (1) planning and development of equipment or a facility and all buildings, facilities, structures, equipment, and improvements related to the facility;
- (2) acquisition of a site and clearing and preparing the site for construction;
- (3) equipment, facilities, structures, and improvements that are necessary or desirable to make the project suitable for use and operations;

- (4) architectural, engineering, consultant, and attorney's fees;
- (5) incidental expenses in connection with the issuance and sale of bonds;
- (6) reserves for principal and interest;
- (7) interest during construction;
- (8) financial advisory fees;
- (9) insurance during construction;
- (10) municipal bond insurance, debt service reserve insurance, letters of credit, or other credit enhancement; and
- (11) in the case of refunding or refinancing, payment of the principal of, redemption premiums (if any) for, and interest on the bonds being refunded or refinanced.

(h) A development authority may not issue bonds under this article unless the development authority first finds that each contract for the construction of a facility and all buildings, facilities, structures, and improvements related to that facility to be financed in whole or in part through the issuance of the bonds requires payment of the common construction wage required by IC 5-16-7.

Bonding; complete authority

Sec. 4. This chapter contains full and complete authority for the issuance of bonds. No law, procedure, proceedings, publications, notices, consents, approvals, orders, or acts by a development board or any other officer, department, agency, or instrumentality of the state or of any political subdivision is required to issue any bonds, except as prescribed in this article.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-4-5

Bonding; security; trust indenture

Sec. 5. (a) A development authority may secure bonds issued under this chapter by a trust indenture between the development authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or national or state bank in Indiana that has trust powers.

(b) The trust indenture may:

- (1) pledge or assign revenue received by the development authority, amounts deposited in the development authority fund, and lease rentals, receipts, and income from leased projects, but may not mortgage land or projects;
- (2) contain reasonable and proper provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders, including covenants setting forth the duties of the development authority and development board;
- (3) set forth the rights and remedies of bondholders and trustees; and
- (4) restrict the individual right of action of bondholders.

(c) Any pledge or assignment made by the development authority under this section is valid and binding in accordance with IC 5-1-14-4 from the time that the pledge or assignment is made, against all persons whether they have notice of the lien or not. Any trust indenture by which a pledge is created or an assignment made need not be filed or recorded. The lien is perfected against third parties in accordance with IC 5-1-14-4.

IC 36-7.6-4-6

Bond refunding; leases

Sec. 6. (a) Bonds issued under IC 8-5-15, IC 8-22-3, IC 36-9-3, or prior law may be refunded as provided in this section.

(b) An eligible political subdivision may:

(1) lease all or a part of land or a project or projects to a development authority, which may be at a nominal lease rental with a lease back to the eligible political subdivision, conditioned upon the development authority assuming bonds issued under IC 8-5-15, IC 8-22-3, IC 36-9-3, or prior law and issuing its bonds to refund those bonds; and

(2) sell all or a part of land or a project or projects to a development authority for a price sufficient to provide for the refunding of those bonds and lease back the land or project or projects from the development authority.

IC 36-7.6-4-7

Leases; findings

Sec. 7. (a) Before a lease may be entered into by an eligible political subdivision under this chapter, the eligible political subdivision must find that the lease rental provided for is fair and reasonable.

(b) A lease of land or a project from a development authority to an eligible political subdivision:

(1) may not have a term exceeding forty (40) years;

(2) may not require payment of lease rentals for a newly constructed project or for improvements to an existing project until the project or improvements to the project have been completed and are ready for occupancy or use;

(3) may contain provisions:

(A) allowing the eligible political subdivision to continue to operate an existing project until completion of the acquisition, improvements, reconstruction, or renovation of that project or any other project; and

(B) requiring payment of lease rentals for land, for an existing project being used, reconstructed, or renovated, or for any other existing project;

(4) may contain an option to renew the lease for the same or a shorter term on the conditions provided in the lease;

(5) must contain an option for the eligible political subdivision to purchase the project upon the terms stated in the lease during the term of the lease for a price equal to the amount required to pay all indebtedness incurred on account of the project, including indebtedness incurred for the refunding of that indebtedness;

(6) may be entered into before acquisition or construction of a project;

(7) may provide that the eligible political subdivision shall agree to:

(A) pay any taxes and assessments on the project;

(B) maintain insurance on the project for the benefit of the development authority;

(C) assume responsibility for utilities, repairs, alterations, and any costs of operation; and

(D) pay a deposit or series of deposits to the development authority from any funds available to the eligible political subdivision before the commencement of the lease to secure the performance of the eligible political subdivision's obligations under the lease; and

(8) must provide that the lease rental payments by the eligible political subdivision shall be made from the development authority fund established under section 1 of this chapter and may provide that the lease rental payments by the eligible political subdivision shall be made from:

(A) net revenues of the project;

(B) any other funds available to the eligible political subdivision; or

(C) both sources described in clauses (A) and (B).

IC 36-7.6-4-8

Leases; complete authority

Sec. 8. This chapter contains full and complete authority for leases between a development authority and an eligible political subdivision. No law, procedure, proceedings, publications, notices, consents, approvals, orders, or acts by a development authority or the eligible political subdivision or any other officer, department, agency, or instrumentality of the state or any political subdivision is required to enter into any lease, except as prescribed in this article.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-4-9

Plan approval

Sec. 9. If the lease provides for a project or improvements to a project to be constructed by a development authority, the plans and specifications shall be submitted to and approved by all agencies designated by law to pass on plans and specifications for public buildings.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-4-10

Agreements; common wall; easements; licenses

Sec. 10. A development authority and an eligible political subdivision may enter into common wall (party wall) agreements or other agreements concerning easements or licenses. These agreements shall be recorded with the recorder of the county in which the project is located.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-4-11

Leases or sale of projects or land to development authorities

Sec. 11. (a) An eligible political subdivision may lease for a nominal lease rental, or sell to a development authority, one (1) or more projects or parts of a project or land on which a project is located or is to be constructed.

(b) Any lease of all or a part of a project by an eligible political subdivision to a development authority must be for a term equal to the term of the lease of that project back to the eligible political subdivision.

(c) An eligible political subdivision may sell property to a development authority for the amount the eligible political subdivision determines to be in the best interest of the eligible political subdivision. The development authority may pay that amount from the proceeds of bonds of the development authority.

As added by P.L.232-2007, SEC.7.

IC 36-7.6-4-12

Option to purchase property

Sec. 12. If an eligible political subdivision exercises its option to purchase leased property, the eligible political subdivision may issue its bonds as authorized by statute.

Transfers; failure to make transfer; duty of state treasurer

Sec. 16. (a) This section applies if:

- (1) a county or municipality that is a member of a development authority fails to make a transfer or a part of a transfer required by section 2 of this chapter; and
- (2) the development authority has bonds or other debt or lease obligations outstanding.

(b) The treasurer of state shall do the following:

- (1) Withhold an amount equal to the amount of the transfer or part of the transfer under section 2 of this chapter that the county or municipality failed to make from money in the possession of the state that would otherwise be available for distribution to the county or municipality under any other law.
- (2) Pay the amount withheld under subdivision (1) to the development authority.

Covenants

Sec. 17. (a) If there are bonds outstanding that have been issued under this article by a development authority and are not secured by a lease, or if there are leases in effect under this article, the general assembly covenants that it will not reduce the amount required to be transferred under section 2 of this chapter from a county or municipality that is a member of a development authority to the development authority below an amount that would produce one and twenty-five hundredths (1.25) multiplied by the total of the highest annual debt service on the bonds to their final maturity plus the highest annual lease payments on the leases to their final termination date.

(b) The general assembly also covenants that it will not:

(1) repeal or amend this article in a manner that would adversely affect owners of outstanding bonds, or the payment of lease rentals, secured by the amounts pledged under this chapter; or

(2) in any way impair the rights of owners of bonds of a development authority, or the owners of bonds secured by lease rentals, secured by a pledge of revenues under this chapter; except as otherwise set forth in subsection (a).
