Meet USTDA and Learn About Export Opportunities

ABOUT USTDA

The U.S. Trade and Development Agency helps companies create U.S. jobs through the export of U.S. goods and services for priority development projects in emerging economies.

USTDA links U.S. businesses to export opportunities by funding project preparation and partnership building activities that develop sustainable infrastructure and foster economic growth in partner countries.

BACKGROUND

Attend this webinar to hear opportunities to support USTDA-funded projects in our priority regions across the globe. These include Access Africa, a USTDA initiative that focuses on greater access to technology in Sub-Saharan Africa, as well as the upcoming Indo-Pacific Business Forum, hosted virtually/in-person and highlighting projects across the Indo-Pacific currently underway, envisioned for the future, and incorporating best practices for interested companies to play a leadership role. Learn more here.

USTDA has extensive agribusiness and healthcare portfolios and has done prior work in the Healthcare sector and Agribusiness sector. During the webinar, attendees will learn about ways to work directly with USTDA including current business opportunities around the globe.

This presentation will feature Todd Abrajano, Chief Operating Officer and Head of Agency for USTDA; and the discussion will be moderated by USTDA's Director of Public Engagement, Dianne Quebral.
