

MATT DAVIS

Manager of Training, Organizational Development, and Community Outreach

ITAMCO

LinkedIn Profile

Matt Davis is a Manager of Training, Organizational Development, and Community Outreach for ITAMCO. He has served on the South Bend - Elkhart Regional Partnership Workforce and Education along with Marshall County Crossroads' Workforce and Education committee as the Co-Chair for both, sat on the board's for Northern Indiana Workforce Board, Lifelong Learning Network of Marshall County, Leadership Marshall County, the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, Plymouth High School's Advisory board helping grow the CNC program all for 3 years, helped with another area school system Triton's Advisory Council, and with Kosciusko County's Intercession Group's Advisory board for one year.

Matt is a graduate of Ball State University with his B.S. in Business Administration and completed his master's in business administration from Indiana Wesleyan. Matt has a passion for his community and takes any opportunity possible to mentor our youth, being a speaker on many panels like Notre Dame's STEM Forum. With the experience Matt brings from working with area Superintendents and the South Bend - Elkhart Regional Partnership, he will serve as the Co-Chair for the Marshall County Crossroads' Workforce and Education committee.